

I have taught broadcasting courses at the university level for almost 30 years. And while I appreciate Sinclair providing such an excellent classroom example of how businesses can abuse the public trust by allowing special interest groups or media owners to pressure them into air propaganda as news; I must ask you to take any immediate pre-emptive action possible to prevent this travesty.